

*Laurie Holverson
USDF Gold Medal Winner
USDF Associate Instructor
USDF 'L' Participant (Learner Judge)*

Laurie Holverson has been a Dressage and Hunter-Jumper Instructor / Competitor / Judge and Trainer for the past 20 years. She has trained and shown to 3rd level in Dressage with two different horses and has shown her FEI horse at the Prix St. George to Grand Prix Levels. She has shown Hunters and participated in Combined Training (Eventing). She rides and trains regularly with the following Grand Prix Dressage Riders and Instructors: Amy Larson from KS and Sarah Geikie (USDF 'S' judge) from CT. She received her Over Fences and Eventing Training with Mary Spaeth from St. Cloud, MN and Jim Graham from SC.

Laurie earned her USDF Gold Medal showing her FEI horse, Independence, in 2008. She completed the United States Dressage Federation (USDF) Instructor Workshops for Dressage Instructor Certification with high marks in 2003 and was awarded USDF Associate Instructor Certification in 2004. Laurie is currently a participant in the USDF "L" Judges Program.

She has been judging schooling Dressage and Hunter shows as well as Mini Events (One day combined training events) for over 20 years in the Bismarck area as well as in Montana.

Her Dressage students range from Introductory Level horse and riders through FEI level pairings. Her Hunter students range from walk/trot beginners to riders jumping over 4 feet. Her riders range in age from 10 years to 70+.

She is a member of: United States Dressage Federation (USDF)
United States Equestrian Federation (USEF)
American Riding Instructor Association (ARIA)
American Association for Horsemanship Safety, Inc. (AAHS)
Dakota Dressage and Eventing (DDE)
Bismarck English Riders (BER)

First Aid / CPR/AED Certified

Laurie can be reached at 701-226-8054
8105 Cresthill Road, Bismarck, ND 58504